Next LVNA General Meeting

Wednesday, February 13, 2008

At 7 p.m. in the Lakewood Park Building

* Mortgage Loans
* The Real Estate Market in Our Area

President's Column

-Michael Majchrowicz

We are very pleased that active Lakewood Village neighbors have stepped forward to fill essential positions to continue LVNA. Christy Majchrowicz has taken over the role of Villager Editor, Terry Lin is our new Ad Coordinator, and Bev Woidyla is LVNA's Treasurer.

Please attend the February 13 meeting for a helpful presentation on mortgage loans and the real estate market in our area. We want those who have mortgages to know if they should refinance, allow you to know what you can afford if you want to buy a home, and give you tips about selling your home if you plan to do so. There have been many changes to both lending and real estate in the last year, and this will be a great learning opportunity, even if you don't plan to sell, buy, or refinance.

Please feel free to invite any of your friends or family who you think would benefit from this workshop.

Also, please join us for our Volunteer Appreciation meeting on March 12 for pizza and a chance to thank all the LVNA volunteers who put incredible effort each year into accomplishing all our events. Without them, the Holiday Parade, Neighborhood Picnic, Dumpster Day, and Villager delivery would never happen.

If you are interested in volunteering for any of the events our neighborhood holds, please email me, president@lvna.net.

Energy Workshop

Want to save money and energy? The energy saving workshop is still being planned, and I am looking for people to join me! The class is based on the Low Carbon Diet, a workbook with easy-to-follow instructions and ideas for reducing your energy bill and CO2 emissions. If you are interested in participating, please contact Ursula Syrova at 408-738-3092.

Helicopter Assisted Manhunt

You may have heard a helicopter flying over the neighborhood at the beginning of January and wondered what was going on. According to Officer Jim Davis, Sunnyvale police officers had made contact with a person on Fairwood who had some serious warrants issued for his arrest. As officers were making contact, the person ran away from police and started jumping fences in the area. It just so happened that the sheriff's helicopter was taking off from Moffett Field. They offered to assist in locating the subject. The suspect was found at an address on Fairwood where he was hiding underneath a pool table. He was taken into custody without incident. He was charged with several counts of prowling, resisting arrest and being under the influence of drugs. He is now at the Santa Clara County Main Jail. The man was a transient and not related to anyone in Lakewood Village. Thankfully this situation was successfully taken care of.

City Skills – Free Community Classes in 2008

Created as a partnership between the City of Sunnyvale and Silicon Valley Leadership, CitySkills, a community education program, teaches people living and working in Sunnyvale how to effectively address issues with City government and take a leadership role in the community.

CitySkills has a new format for 2008, designed to more effectively meet the needs of the Sunnyvale community. CitySkills classes will be held throughout the year on a variety of topics, including: Introduction to City Services, Conflict Resolution, Mock Council Meeting, Cultural Competency, Study Issues and Budget Issues. In addition to the topics listed here, City staff will be looking to add new topics based on feedback from the Sunnyvale community. All classes, which are usually 1-2 hours in length, are Free to the public and everyone living or working in Sunnyvale is encouraged to attend.

If you are interested in attending , please see the schedule below or visit

CitySkills.inSunnyvale.com

You may also get additional information or suggest a new CitySkills topic by contacting Nathan Truitt, Community Outreach coordinator at (408) 730-7472 or ntruitt@ci.sunnyvale.ca.us.

Upcoming CitySkills Class:

Wednesday, February 13, 2008, 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.

Cypress Room, Senior Center, 550 E. Remington Dr.

Topic: Conflict Resolution, with an Emphasis on Neighbor/Neighbor Disputes

February in Your Yard and Garden

☼Purchase bare-root plants. Cover the roots until you have the time and the weather is right for planting.

☼Order bare-root fruit trees from specialty nurseries. They will usually stop shipping bare-root fruit trees by the end of March.

☼Send in orders to seed companies before they run out of stock later in spring.

☼Clean and repair garden tools. Sharpen the blades of pruning tools and shovels. Service the lawn mower.

☼Complete pruning of deciduous trees, shrubs, vines, fruit trees, and roses.

☼If desired and if deciduous plants have not leafed out yet, apply a last application of dormant spray to kill overwintering insects. It is particularly important to use a lime sulfur spray for peach and nectarine trees to prevent a fungus commonly known as peach leaf curl that cases distorted leaves and scarred fruit.

☼Select and plant azaleas, camellias, and rhododendrons while they are in bloom.

☼Fertilize spring-blooming bulbs as the foliage emerges. Some growers recommend dried blood meal; follow the directions on the package, sprinkling the blood meal around the emerging foliage.

These tips are from the book Northern California Gardening: A Month-by-Month Guide, by Katherine Grace Endicott, published by Chronicle Books, San Francisco, copyright 1996, and are used with the publisher's permission. ■
