There will be a Candidate Forum and Presentation

October 14, 7:00 pm, Lakewood Park Building

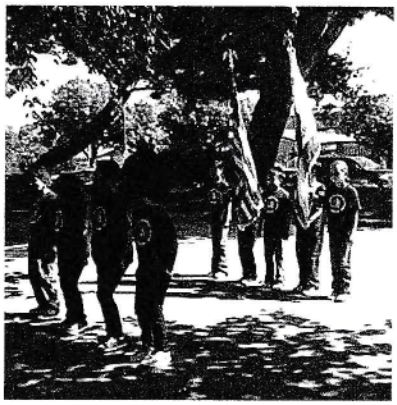

President's Column

-Michael Majchrowicz

Thank you to all the volunteers at this year's LVNA Picnic! I am always encouraged by the people within the LVNA board and residents of Lakewood Village that continually give their time to these wonderful events. The picnic began with an excellent performance by the Lakewood School Color Guard, who presented the colors and led us in our National Anthem. We were also fortunate enough to have Supervisor Dave Cortese stop by and meet with neighbors.

At our next meeting, on October 14, we will be having a forum for the candidates to speak about their positions on the issues this year. This will be followed by a time for questions and answers. I think it is important to be informed when we go to vote, and this will be a great opportunity to form your own opinions based on the information provided.

We are looking for leaders to join Lakewood Village Neighborhood Association to continue the events and work that go on each year. Please contact me or any of the other board members to find out how you can be involved. Our contact information is on the back page of the Villager.

Local Author Gets Book Published

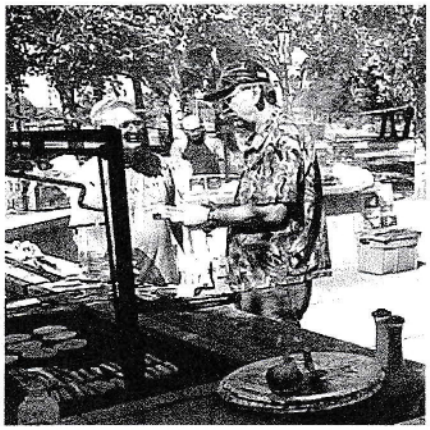

Puppy Pen Pals, a recently published book by Lakewood Village resident Terri Silveira, is an exchange of letters between Max and Samson, two miniature schnauzers. The older puppy, Max, gives advice to the newly adopted eight-week-old puppy, Samson. In return, Samson describes first time experiences, such as getting a bath, his first visit to the vet, and getting a new collar. Max and Samson continue to write letters back and forth until Samson celebrates his first birthday where Max congratulates Samson for starting to become a well-behaved, well-loved companion to his human family.

Puppy Pen Pals is an adorable book dedicated to Terri's beloved Samson. It helps children and adults understand the basic needs of a puppy.

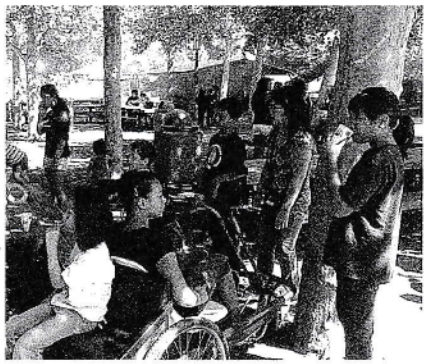

With the holidays just around the corner, this would make a great gift.

The book can be purchased directly from Terri for $10.00 a copy. Please contact her at terri@aenet.net or (408) 718-2502 to obtain your personally autographed copy.
