Response to Email Chain About a Home Invasion Style Robbery

My name is Tracy Hern and I am the Crime Prevention Unit supervisor for the City of Sunnyvale, Department of Public Safety. I am writing to everyone to address an email string that is circulating throughout many Neighborhood Associations in Sunnyvale.

On Friday January 20, 2012 at approximately 10:30 pm a home invasion style robbery occurred in Sunnyvale. This robbery occurred in the Ponderosa Park area. No one was physically injured during this incident. The robbery began with a knock on the door of the residence and an unknown male accusing the home owners of providing drugs to a family member. This was simply a rouse to get the occupant to open the door. The occupant subsequently closed and locked the door, but the suspect forced entry by kicking the door. Once inside the suspect stole a laptop and made verbal threats to the occupants prior to leaving. The suspect was not armed and no weapon was mentioned or seen. A second subject was present, but never made entry into the house. This subject was arrested a short distance from the scene.

The primary suspect in this case is still outstanding, but our Robbery Detectives have solid leads they are investigating. (continued on Page 4)

Special Author Event at Columbia Neighborhood Center!

WHAT: Meet Dr. Francisco Jimenez award-winning author.

WHEN: Tuesday, February 7, 2012

6:30—8:30pm

WHERE: Columbia Middle School Multi-Purpose room

Dr. Jimenez shares his life story and experience as a young child who immigrated to the US with his family. He will discuss his experience working in the farm lands of California, his challenges with the English language, education, etc. and how he took full advantage of his education. He went on to attend Santa Clara University and earned his B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. in Latin American literature. He is currently the Fay Boyle Professor at Santa Clara University and has published and edited books on Mexican and Mexican American literature.

We invite you to meet him in person and reads his inspiring books, which have been translated in many languages:

The Circuit: Stories from the Life of a Migrant Child

Breaking Through, the sequel to The Circuit
Reaching Out, the sequel to Breaking Through
La Mariposa, a children's book
The Christmas Gift, an illustrated bilingual book for children.
Books by Dr. Jimenez will be available for purchase at the event. ◆

I would like to remind homeowners to keep doors and windows locked at all times. Although this may not completely stop an intruder from entering your home, it will definitely deter some of their actions. Also, be mindful of unknown visitors to your home. If someone comes to your door that you do not know, do not open it. Use the peep hole or window to let them know you are home and tell them you are not expecting anyone and ask them to leave. If the person engages you verbally tell them that you are calling the police and then dial "911" to report the suspicious person. Do not simply ignore them. This may give the person the idea that no one is home and they may try to burglarize this home.

There are rumors that this incident is just one of "several other occurrences" with the same ploy. I would like to reassure you that this was an isolated incident. Crime does occur in Sunnyvale, but home invasion style robberies are rare. There have only been three reported cases in the last year and they were months apart from each other and in completely different areas of the City. Sunnyvale is a safe community and it is because our community members, like you, report suspicious activity when it is occurring. The Department of Public Safety has a strong connection with our community and we all benefit from our partnership with the Neighborhood Associations.

Thank you for your continued support.
