May 2012 Volume 56 Number 5 Sunnyvale, California Editor: Phyllis Fowler

Monthly Meeting Wednesday, May 9th

At 7:00 pm in the Lakewood Park Building

This month's Topic: Michelle Phylips from the City will talk about the New Ban on Plastic Shopping Bags—FREE Giveaways!

Next Month come and meet our new Public Safety Chief Frank Grgurina!

President's Column

-Judy Fernandez

Hello Neighbors!

Our April meeting had a very low turnout. It would have been nice to have more people show up to meet the new LVNA board. If it were not for the people stepping up, we would not have our events!

We did have a special guest show up unannounced, Councilmember Jim Davis. He mentioned that with the new council and three of the new members still fighting for our pool, we might be able to keep it for another year. He suggested that everyone start writing letters and sending emails to the council regarding the Lakewood pool. Councilmember Davis said he will bring the Lakewood pool up again at the budget meeting for the upcoming year

Our June meeting is a BIG one. The new Public Safety Chief Frank Grgurina has accepted our invitation to speak about crime in Lakewood and the surrounding areas. Please… please… try and attend this meeting. It is very important to our neighborhood! ◆

Free Singer's Clinic in Sunnyvale

The Peninsulaires a cappella chorus (an non-profit music education organization) is sponsoring The Singer's Voice Clinic – a free vocal training program specifically for the male voice.

This six-week clinic begins Tuesday, May 15th at 7:30 p.m. and runs weekly through Tuesday, June 19th. Each 90-minute session will deliver hands on training in the fundamentals of singing. The location is at the First United Methodist Church at 535 Old San Francisco Road, Sunnyvale.

For additional information and to register visit www.freevoicelessons.net or call John Hinkle 408-896-0444.

Paul Eastman, a renowned vocal coach and member of the Peninsulaires, leads the weekly sessions. He has competed in several quartets and choruses at the international level of the Barbershop Harmony Society. Paul works closely with Peninsulaires director, Steve Sammonds in the chorus' weekly practice sessions.

The Peninsulaires perform year round and their musical arrangements vary from classics to jazz, patriotic to sacred, and is rounded out with standards and Broadway pops. For more info go to: www.thepeninsulaires.org ◆

Lakewood School at San Jose Giants Game

When: June 1st @ 7:00pm
Tickets are $5.00 each
Email jayne.ferreira@sesd.org to buy tickets

Do you love baseball? Have you ever been to a San Jose Giants game? Well this is your chance to get a bargain and support Lakewood School at the same time!. All the money raised will be going into teacher accounts for the start of next year.. So far we have sold less than 500 tickets. We bought 2,500 that we thought we could sell.

Mrs. Cheng will be throwing out the first pitch. Taste Turkey Mike's Barbeque, watch a ballgame and enjoy the entertainment between innings. The fun includes Mr. Davis in a dance-off with Gigante and the Lakewood chorus singing "Take Me Out to the Ballgame.

Did you know that 149 former San Jose Giants had reached the major leagues? 108 of those players debuted with San Francisco. And 15 former San Jose Giants debuted in the big leagues during the 2008 season. There were 10 former SJ Giants on San Francisco's World Series roster in 2010, including starting pitchers Tim Lincecum, Matt Cain, Jonathan Sanchez and Madison Bumgarner along with catcher Buster Posey. In 1991, San Jose Giants shortstop Clay Bellinger was the first former SJ Giant to win a World Series ring (1999 New York Yankees). Lincecum, a 2006 San Jose Giant, won the National League Cy Young Award in 2008 and 2009.

Home field for the San Jose Giants is fan-friendly, historic San Jose Municipal Stadium. Built in 1942 with $84,000 in WPA funds, San Jose Muni provides her fans with the feeling of baseball as it should be. All seats provide close up viewing where not only can you see all the action, but you can hear it too. Players are accessible nightly for autographs and photos. Down the left field line is Turkey Mike's Baseball & BBQ. Since its opening in 1988, the food has been acclaimed throughout the baseball world. From a CSNBayArea.com article in 2011 by Paul O'Brian, the following was written:

"...the heart of the ball park food scene at San Jose Municipal, Turkey Mike's BBQ! As the sign says, it's world famous! While there, you can feast on ribs, chicken, tri-tip, Philly cheesesteaks, sausages, wings, garlic fries and much more. Their special rub has been a secret within the organization since the team became the San Jose Giants in 1988. Only one person in the organization has the recipe and it is kept under lock and key!"
(Editor..Fred loves the Tri-tip and I love the hot dogs. We have been going to the San Jose Giant games for years. The games are very family oriented and a lot of fun!) ◆

The 27th Hands on the Arts is coming!

Where: Sunnyvale Community Center
550 E. Remington Dr.
When: Saturday, May 19th
10:00am – 4:00pm

Hands on the Arts is Sunnyvale's signature event. It is a multicultural arts festival especially for children between the ages 3-12.

Hands on the Arts features all-day family-friendly entertainment on the outdoor stage and more than 30 workshops giving children opportunities to learn and try different art forms. Projects this year will include: Japanese Brush Painting, Indian Diyas, Wands, Wings and Things, Dancing Chinese Dragons, Silly Snakes and Peruvian Arpilleras.

With so many workshops from which to choose, children can keep busy all day and leave with armloads of projects. Most workshops allow a child to create an art project to take home in about 15 minutes.

Performing-arts workshops teach a song or dance to be presented in impromptu performances throughout the day.

Admission to the festival grounds is free, but participation in workshops requires purchase of a wristband for $10 per child at the festival information booth or in advance online.

Go to: HandsontheArts.inSunnyvale.com to purchase the wristband.

Wristband allow unlimited workshop participation and includes all supplies. Some workshops do have a minimum age restriction. Each child must have his or her own wristband and wear at all times to participate.

Parents and caregivers are invited to watch and help their children complete projects, but because of limited supplies, adults are not permitted to complete projects of their own.

Food is available for purchase in the festival's food court area, and picnics are also allowed.
Entrance to the festival grounds is always free and includes live entertainment throughout the day. There is plenty of free parking! ◆

Sunnyvale Downtown Association's 2nd Annual Downtown Wine & Food Stroll

PLEASE NOTE: THE WINE TASTING COMPONENT IS FOR 21 YEARS AND OLDER BUT THE MAGIC ENTERTAINMENT IS free AND SUITABLE FOR KIDS TO ENJOY!!!

Ticket price includes a commemorative wine glass, all tastes, a downtown map and tote bag. TICKETS ARE LIMITED to 1000, so please do not wait until the last minute to purchase your tickets as this event will sell out! We will have raffle prizes so please fill out your contact information on the back of your ticket prior to the event and be entered in the drawings.

Each attendee is guaranteed at least 20, 1 oz sample pours. We strongly recommend you get your tickets in advance as once all 1000 tickets are sold it will be sold out! You'd think with all of the magicians in attendance you could get someone to conjure up some extra tickets and an extra bottle or two out of a hat but we already put that "no, no" stipulation" in their contract . . sorry.◆

Downtown Construction Update

The property formerly known as The Sunnyvale Town & Country was divided and sold to two developers. The southern half (the parcel that directly faces Washington Avenue) was purchased by BRE properties and is currently under construction. Their project, Solstice Apartment Homes, will feature four stories equaling 280 apartments as well as 30,000 retail space on the ground floor. To see their other properties, go to: www.breproperties.com

The second parcel was purchased by Carmel Partners who plan to build 130+ rental units along Olson Way (formerly Capella Way) with retail facing South Frances Street and The Plaza del Sol grounds. Ground breaking will not take place until Summer 2012. For more information and other Carmel Partner developments please visit: www.carmelapartments.com ◆
