Hello Neighbors!

We will not be having our usual meeting on Wednesday, November 14th; instead Councilmember Jim Griffith will be having a Town Hall Meeting on Saturday, November 10th at the Lakewood Park Building. (Please see the flyer) If you have any questions, comments or gripes, here is your chance to express them!

The October 10th LVNA meeting was well attended. Our guest was Officer Brian Gnatt Lakewood's Neighborhood Resource Officer from Public Safety. He gave us the crime report from the past 6 months regarding the Northside of Sunnyvale. He mentioned a web site www.crimereports.com you can go to see crime incidents in Sunnyvale. He also explained if you would like a response to your call into Public Safety, always ask for the event number and tell dispatch you want a follow up.

One neighbor brought up the vendor carts throughout Lakewood/Fairwood. Officer Gnatt suggested that if you see them report to Neighborhood Preservation with the time, date and the name of the vendor. They will check out the vendor and see if they have permits or not.

December will be a busy month. There will be no general meeting in December. The LVNA Holiday Parade is Dec. 1st

Holiday Parade December 1st!!

Mark your Calendars! The Annual LVNA Holiday Parade will be Saturday December 1st . There will be the Fremont Marching Band, classic cars, and even Santa Claus! ◆

Fairwood Loses its API Score

There has been some concern over a rumor that Fairwood Elementary school lost their API score because of cheating on the test. I wanted to correct some of the misinformation that is going around. It was one teacher, one class and one question.

During the state testing, a third-grade teacher looked through a test booklet and then taught her class the concept from one question. When Principal Sarah Tellez found out, she reported it to the district. The district did the right thing and reported it to the state.

The API scores are intended to provide an annual, overall gauge of a school's academic performance. If more than 5 percent of students are found to have been exposed to a testing irregularity,

Editor's Corner

By Phyllis Fowler

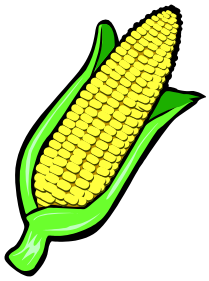

(One of neighbor's recently asked me for the Corn Casserole recipe I shared two years ago. Article from the November 2010 newsletter.)

Now that Thanksgiving is almost here I thought I would share one of my favorite recipes. A few years Fred and I had my family over for Thanksgiving. With all the cooking to do I wanted a simple side dish that I could put together quickly and easily. I found this southern style recipe on foodnetwork.com by Paula Deen. It was a huge hit, especially with the guys! (We don't need to tell them it was so easy, just take the praise and let them feel spoiled!) I will warn you that this is rich! I left out the Cheddar cheese and reduced the butter to a third of a cup. I also use fat free sour cream, to help bring down the calories. The guys never noticed and there rarely are leftovers. However, if you do have leftovers, it heats up nicely in the microwave the next day. I hope you enjoy your holiday!

Corn Casserole

Recipe courtesy Paula Deen

Prep Time: 10 minutes
Cook Time: 55 min
Level: Really Easy
Serves 6 to 8 servings

Ingredients

1 (15 1/4-ounce) can whole kernel corn, drained
1 (14 3/4-ounce) can cream-style corn
1 (8-ounce) package corn muffin mix
(Jiffy cornbread mix is recommended)
1 cup sour cream
1/2 cup (1 stick) butter, melted
1 to 1 1/2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese

Directions

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees .

In a large bowl, stir together the 2 cans of corn, corn muffin mix, sour cream, and melted butter. Pour into a Greased 9" by 13" casserole dish. Bake for 45 minutes, or until golden brown. Remove from oven and top with Cheddar cheese. Return to oven for 5 to 10 minutes, or until cheese is melted. Let stand for at least 5 minutes and then serve warm. (Just don't tell anyone how easy it really is!)

Green Bean Casserole

Recipe courtesy of Robert Irvine

Total Time: 30 min
Prep time: 10 min
Cook time: 20 min
Level: Easy
Yields: 16 to 20 servings

Ingredients

2 pounds haricots verts (French thin green beans)
2 large red onions, finely diced
8 tablespoons (1/2 cup or 1 stick) butter, unsalted
2 (10-ounce) cans cream of mushroom soup
3 tomatoes, seeded and diced
4 cans French-fried onions
Salt and freshly ground black pepper

Directions

Blanch the haricots verts in hot water for about 3 to 5 minutes then remove from heat and shock in iced water. Drain and set aside to cool.

Preheat oven to 325 degrees F.

In a large skillet sauté the chopped onion in butter. Then add the cooled beans and sauté for a couple of minutes. Add the canned mushroom soup and mix well. Transfer to a buttered casserole dish and top with the diced tomato, French-fried onions, and season with salt and pepper, to taste.

Bake in oven for about 10 minutes.

the state does not assign API scores.

Unfortunately, Fairwood School is the smallest school in the district and one class is more than 5 percent of the student body. So disqualifying one class from the API scores has had the effect that Fairwood lost their API score for the year. However, the students still receive their individual scores and this will not impact the funding of the school.

I applaud Principal Tellez and the Sunnyvale School District for acting with honor. ◆

The afterschool kids (KLAS) will be again collecting toys along the parade route. Last year we collected over $400.00, let's make this year even bigger! All of the toys that are donated, go to the Sunnyvale Community Services and will go to Sunnyvale families.

This year we are trying something new. At the end of our Holiday Parade, there will be "Food Truck" area. Joe on the Go, Road Dogs, and Banjara Bistro will be available and located in the Valley Faith Church parking lot right next to Fairwood Park. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the church. In previous years neighbors have asked for more than just cookies and cocoa, so we are giving this a try! However, cookies and cocoa will still be available from LVNA. Our Annual Lighting Contest is December 22nd, so get your house ready to show off! ◆
