This month our topics are: Sunnyvale Animal Control

Brainstorming on the Branch Library, Dumpster Day Dos & Don'ts

Dumpster Day is July 20th !!!

August 6th is National Night Out

President's Column

-Judy Fernandez

Happy Springtime Neighbors!

Our May 15th meeting was very well attended by neighbors and Council members.

Robert Walker from the City Manager's office showed us their plans for our new branch library.

The proposed site will be on the grassy area between the tennis courts and the children's playground. The building should be between 7000 and 9000 sq. feet. We are hoping to have a community room for our monthly meetings and a children's storybook area, computers, Wi-Fi plus Internet access, a research center and access to thousands of books, movies and music. Finally, a delivery service will allow branch users to order items from the Main library. (Continued on page 2)

June Meeting

Hello Everyone,

This month our guest is Sunnyvale Animal Control. If you have concerns (such as: dog's off leashes, barking dogs, raccoon problems) bring your comments, concerns & questions.

We will also be brainstorming for ideas about the proposed new library at Lakewood Park. Do you have ideas about what you would like to see, do and access at the new library? Bring your ideas to the meeting or email Judy @ lakewoodvillagelvna@gmail,com . We want to bring these ideas to the city before they start drawing up the plans! Now is the time to get those suggestions in!!!

Dumpster Day is July 20th and Skip will be giving us tips on the "Dos and Don'ts" for Dumpster Day. ◆

Newsletter Walkers Needed for Lakewood Side!

Wendy Stanley is looking for 2 walkers. The first route is on Lakewood between Meadowlake and Lawrence, the second route is shorter and on Silverlake.

If interested, please call Wendy at (408) 745-1331 ◆

We Have A Theft Among Us

By Mary B
neighbor on Lakehaven Dr.

This past week, someone walked up into my front yard (the nerve) and stole my burro. I have lived in the Village well over 50 years and this is the first time this type of thing as ever happened to me or my neighbors.

To you it is a lawn decoration, but to me it has great sentimental value and cannot be replaced.

Please, Please, return it soon, my front yard is my sanctuary and brings me great pleasure to sit among my treasures. ◆

There will be continuing meetings with our neighborhood as to what it will look like and what will go inside this neighborhood library. Robert Walker said, "This is Lakewood's neighborhood library but will be open to the public". The plan is to add about 38 parking spaces off of Lakechime and they anticipate that people will walk, ride their bikes or take the bus to the library. (the "55" bus stop is less than a block from the proposed site.)

You can also order materials for the main library and they will be bought to Lakewood library. At the May meeting, we took a vote and the majority of neighbors liked the idea.

Update: At the City Council Meeting on May 21st the Council voted to approve the branch library in Lakewood. Leah and Wendy from the LVNA board attended and let the Council know our feelings and that our neighbors very much want to be a part of the planning.

Please watch for your newsletters for all the meetings regarding this wonderful asset to our neighborhood. If you can't attend any of the meetings (I know people are busy) please let LVNA know though our email address (lakewoodvillagelvna@gmail.com) and I will pass along to the planners at the City. ◆

Jazz & Beyond Returns! Entertainment Line-Up

Every Saturday starting
July 06 - Aug. 24
5:30pm-8:30pm

On Saturday, Murphy Avenue transforms into one big street cafe where you can enjoy a sit down dinner with over 20 restaurants to choose from! What makes this event named by locals as "The Ultimate Dining Experience" is that everyone at your table gets to choose what individual restaurant to serve them taking away that dreaded common dining dilemma of everyone trying to agree on what type of food are we having for dinner tonight! Oh and let's not forget some of the best regional jazz acts to grace "The Ave".

Neighbor's News

Out For An Evening Walk

By Patrick Rose

This incident happened to me about two years ago. I offered this story to Phyllis Fowler in case she is interested for The Villager. It's an incident that I like to remind myself about every once in a while.

My wife and I often take walks around the Lakewood side of Lakewood Village. It's a route that takes about forty five minutes to cover a distance of about two miles.

Well, we were walking down Hiddenlake and turned into the Hetch Hetchy bicycle path, going in an easterly direction.

As soon as we turned the corner from the street, I saw two dogs barking and snarling at a woman who was holding the trash can lid from the rest stop in front of herself for protection. The two dogs were approaching her, slowly moving from under the brush towards her. The dogs kept getting closer and closer to the woman - it looked like they were moving in for the kill. I raised both of my arms up high to look bigger than I really am, started yelling and ran towards the two dogs. When I got to within maybe thirty feet of the dogs, they started to back down, still barking and looking vicious.

The dogs had apparently entered the trail through a hole in the fence from a back yard. The woman was really excited and could hardly talk. I asked the woman why the dogs were after her and she said "They're after my dog." and pointed to the trash can. Inside was a small dog hunkering down in the trash can.

The two vicious dogs would not return to their yard and kept barking from the cover of the bushes. The lady called her husband and I called 911.

Her husband Joseph came around the corner real fast. I related to Joe what happened and he gave me a card with his name, address, and phone number on it and told me to call him if I ever needed anything. I still have this card and keep it as a memento. The police arrived and told me I could leave, so we continued on with our walk ◆

Dangerous Corner

by J.B. Priestley

A group of posh Brits sequestered together in a cozy, country retreat – lies, betrayals, and dramatic disclosures abound!

The Caplans host a dinner party for their colleagues and friends, but a chance remark sparks a series of dangerous revelations. The truth is exposed as the group's perfect lives begin to crumble in this play of psychological intrigue, but then "life's got a lot of dangerous corners – hasn't it?"

7:30 pm – June 13 – 14 , June 22, July 11 & 20
3:00 pm – July 7 (Talk Back)

Lost in Hollywood by Gayle Cornelison,

Quirky characters, upbeat songs, and the often hilarious growing pains of a new and burgeoning industry.

Follow the adventures of Richard Nelson, a would-be movie actor delighted to have his "big-break" with a new movie studio. He soon discovers that his path to fame will be challenging, that the scrip is not likely to win any awards and that his director has never directed anything – much less a major motion picture.

7:30 pm – June 8, June 15, June 20 - 21
3:00 pm – July 6, July 20, July 21 (Talk Back)

The Women by Clare Boothe Luce

The revival of a play you can really sink your nails into!

Centered on a group of gossipy, Manhattan socialites, this all-women cast of CTC alumnae actresses return to the stage to play a host of colorful characters in this classic which touches on themes relevant today – marriage and divorce, socioeconomic class, female friendship, standards of beauty and the role of the woman in the modern world – all wrapped up in the most delicious, fast-paced, razor-sharp dialogue ever!

How to Make Sure Oklahoma Tornado Victims Benefit From Your Donation

by Amy Hebert
Consumer Education Specialist,
Federal Trade Commission

In the wake of the destructive tornados that devastated Oklahoma, you may be looking for ways to help, like donating to a charity or fund.

Before you give, just make sure of one thing — that your donations are going to a reputable organization that will use the money as promised! Unfortunately, legitimate charities face competition from scammers who either collect for a charity that doesn't exist or aren't honest about how their "charity" will use the money you give. Like legitimate charities, they might appeal for donations in person, by phone or mail, by e-mail, on websites, or on social networking sites.

If you're asked to make a charitable donation to support victims of the tornados, remember:

- Donate to charities you know and trust. Be alert for charities that seem to have sprung up overnight in connection with current events, like a natural disaster. (American Red Cross, American Humane Association, Save the Children, United Way of Central Oklahoma & CARE to name a few)

- Ask if a caller is a paid fundraiser, who they work for, and what percentage of your donation goes to the charity and to the fundraiser. If you don't get a clear answer — or if you don't like the answer you get — consider donating to a different organization.

- Don't give out personal or financial information including your credit card or bank account number - unless you know the charity is reputable.

- Never send cash! you can't be sure the organization will receive your donation, and you won't have a record for tax purposes.

- Check out the charity with the Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance (BBB.org), Charity Navigator.org, Charity Watch.org, or GuideStar.org

- Find out if the charity or fundraiser must be registered in your state by contacting the National Association of State Charity Officials (nasconet.org). ◆
