President's Message

By Fred Fowler

Greetings Neighbors!

I want to apologize for being out of touch lately. I took a new job in October and I found things there to be terribly disorganized. I'm finally starting to get things under control, but I've had to spend many weeks of 12 hours per day, 7 days per week effort. The other LVNA board members (especially Wendy Stanley) stepped up and took on the load, but several things (such as the http://www.lvna.net website) have suffered.

Anyway, I hope all of that is now behind me. It is time to close the book on 2014 and start planning out what the New Year holds for us all.

Come to the Lakewood Park building on Wednesday, January 14th at 7:00pm and help us scope out 2015 for the LVNA. We'll be having an "open" board meeting that night where the board will conduct its normal business. In addition, we'll be looking at the various challenges the neighborhood faces and will try to identify the ones to focus on in the coming year. We ask as many interested Lakewood neighbors as possible to join us. We need your insights and suggestions as to what is most important for us to have on our collective "radar screen". The more participation we get the better!

Last year we had quite a number of initiatives that bore fruit for us all. We got and provided information about the renovation of Lakewood School.

Holiday Lighting Contest

By Wendy Stanley

The winners of the lighting contest are:

Zone 1: 751 Lakehaven Drive
Zone 2: 263 Twinlake Drive
Zone 3; 1285 Manzano Drive
Zone 4: 902 Fairwood Drive

And a special shout out to Manzano Drive for the dozen or so houses that were lit.

Those of us on the Lakewood side missed what I have affectionately named "Overkill House" on Lakefair. They have had a house and yard full of lights for years and it was greatly missed by me at least.

(Editor's note: Mr. Huff died 5 years ago and his son has been keeping up the tradition. However, last year has been very busy and he hopes to carry on this year.)

Newsletter Walkers Needed for Lakewood Routes!

We are looking to fill vacancies for Newsletter walkers for the Lakewood sides of our neighborhood.

It takes about a half an hour each month and it's good exercise!

We worked with Public Safety on the impacts of the new Levi's Stadium, we learned about the County's plans for a 5 year project to transform Lawrence Expressway, and we gave input to the VTA about bus service to the north side of Sunnyvale. We organized ourselves to deal with a new graffiti problem, we learned about the challenge of West Nile Virus in Sunnyvale, we got updates on the Santa Clara Valley Water District's flood control project for the Sunnyvale East Channel, and we gave input to the city about the timing of the renovation of Lakewood Park. In addition, we had a very successful Dumpster Day, an even more successful Classic Car Show, and a wonderful Holiday Parade to cap it all off. 2014 was quite a year for the LVNA.

Come to the meeting on Wednesday January 14th and help us plan out 2015!

I'll see you there. ◆

The Parade That Was

By Wendy Stanley

I would like to thank all the people who helped make the parade and after party a success: Our LVNA board - Fred and Phyllis Fowler, myself, Dess Tamez and Pat Muniz; Mr. Paul Schaefer, who unbeknownst to me has retired from doing the Lakewood Color Guard, but still managed to get some alumni together to lead our parade; Our Sunnyvale Public Officers for help with traffic and a ride for Santa; City Council members Glenn Hendricks, Gustave Larsson, Tara Martin-Milius, Jim Davis, and mayor Jim Griffith; a School Board member; Judy Fernandez for gathering toys for our toy drive; Skip Gottschalk, his wife and their neighbors Dennis and his wife, and Bev W. for taking care of making and serving hot cocoa and apple cider; the Scout Dog Troop; the classic cars; Mr. Kelly and the Fremont Band; Mr. Howard and the Fremont and Columbia choirs; and, of course, Santa himself for taking time out of his busy schedule to be in our parade and visit with kids after. I apologize if I've forgotten anyone (I'm really bad with names).

Toy donations were down this year as we did not promote it enough, as a result there has been a request to donate the difference in cash to Sunnyvale Community Resources. Perhaps we can decide on that at our next meeting ◆

Announcing The 2015 LVNA Art And Writing Contest!

By Fred Fowler

Hello neighbors! I'm very happy to announce the return of the LVNA Art and Writing contest!

Old timers in the neighborhood might remember that in 1996-1997 the LVNA asked school age kids to submit their stories and drawings in a contest that gave US Savings Bonds as prizes. Entries were judged by the LVNA board and winners were announced each month. All entries were published in The Villager, and displayed at the LVNA's general meeting. The contest was funded by a grant obtained from the City of Sunnyvale by our late neighbor Elena Anderson and her husband Mel.

If you recall, during our Dumpster Day event last July we sponsored a Goodwill donation drive. The drive was a huge success – we donated more than 8 tons of clothing, toys, gadgets and small furniture in just one day. It was so successful that Goodwill gave us a check for almost $3,000 in payment for the merchandise. Ever since then the LVNA board has been looking for a good use of that money. The art and writing contest is one of the ways we've decided to use the donation drive proceeds.

Here are the rules:

1) The contest is open to everyone in Lakewood Village. All entries must give the name, address and age of the person making the submission.

Note: the full names and addresses will NOT be published. For example: if Juan Ortega at 921 Lakebird Drive is 10 years old and submits an entry, he will be identified as "Juan on Lakebird Drive, age 10.

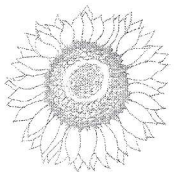

2) There will be separate categories based on age

Age groupings will be:

a) Elementary school age
b) Middle school age
c) High school age, and
d) Adults

3) There will be separate categories based on type of submission. Categories will include

a) Poetry
b) Prose (stories)
c) Drawings & Paintings
c) Photography
d) Sculpture

4) All entries must be submitted through e-mail to our newsletter editor, Phyllis Fowler at sunny-phyl@gmail.com.
Note: it isn't very easy to e-mail a sculpture so please send photographs of the entries.

5) All entries are due by the last Friday of each month.

6) All entries will be displayed in a special section of our website: http://www.lvna.net. They will also be posted to our Facebook group. Entries will be published in The Villager as space permits.

7) Entries will be judged by the LVNA board and prizes will be awarded on a regular basis.
Note: prizes for each category have not been settled yet, but they will only be awarded to entrants of High School age or less. Adult entries will receive "honorable mentions" and will be displayed on their own page of the website.

The deadline for the January contest round is January 30th, so get your creative juices flowing! (Some of you might know that I am an amateur oil painter, and I plan to submit an entry myself.) Let's show each other what we can do! I look forward to seeing the submissions!
