June LVNA meeting: Timebanking!

Greetings Neighbors!

June is "busting out all over"! After a "grey May" with lots of clouds, drizzle and thoroughly un-Californian weather, June has started out with some sunny days! It is about time! I am a "sunshine" kind of guy, and I get a little grumpy when it is dark and cold. It felt like the winter months kept going on forever this year. I hope all that is now behind us and we can get on with a sunny Spring (what's left of it) and Summer.

The Summer months are always busy ones for the LVNA. Two of our major events happen almost back-to-back in the period when school is out. The first one is (of course) Dumpster Day, which is coming up on July 18th. The next one is our "Hot August Nights" car show, to be held once again on the day of "National Night Out", August 4th. Preparations are already underway for both of them. Watch the newsletter for more information.

Summer is also a good time to get chores out of the way. As anyone living in a Lakewood Village house knows, there is never any end to the "to do" list. One of the nice things about living in a community like ours is that you can get to know your neighbors and help each other out when a little help could come in handy.

Getting to know your neighbors and helping each other out is a very powerful way to build a strong community. In a nutshell, that is what the LVNA does.

Dumpster Day will be Saturday, July 18th

Dumpster day will Saturday July 18th. Longtime coordinator Skip Gottschalk is lining up locations for each of the 19 Dumpsters we'll have that day. It's a good time to prune the trees in your yard, plan your next renovation project or switch out your old toilet for new water saving one.

We will have two 28 foot Goodwill trailers again to fill up with donations. They will pay the LVNA $1,500.00 for every trailer we fill up! Last year we made over $3,000.00 and every item that goes to Goodwill will help someone and will also be kept out of the landfill.

Save up your items that are in good shape. Bring clothes, household items, toys, books, small appliances. Walk around your home and collect items you and your family no longer need — that shirt that's been hanging in the back of your closet for three years, the toy trike your five-year old has outgrown, the holiday gift from grandma you never quite found a place for, etc.

We still need volunteers to assist with the Goodwill trailer and someone to take things from the Dumpster sites and bring them to the Goodwill trailers. Contact Fred at fmfainc@gmail.com or his cell phone (408) 505-2813 . ◆

President's Column

It is why the LVNA exists. We do our events and publish our newsletter as a way to help neighbors get to know each other and work together. If we practice working together on things we want to do, we'll be ready to work together when we absolutely have to.

If we have an earthquake or a flood we'll have the nucleus of an organization that can help in the emergency. If City Hall starts considering an action that could give Lakewood Village the "shaft", we'll have the core of a group that can organize us to fight back. There is a good reason why the LVNA does its events and activities. The purpose (indirectly) is self-preservation for the Lakewood Village neighborhood.

There are other ways to help neighbors get to know each other and work together. There are other organizations who are interested in doing so. One such organization is the Palo Alto Medical Foundation. They have a tool they use called their "linkAges Timebank".

This "Timebank" is used to match people with certain skills and talents with people who could use some help with various projects. Someone with a skill (such as Website development or Knitting or speaking French) can earn "time dollars" by providing skilled help to people who need it. They can then "spend" their time dollars by buying skilled help from other people when they need it.

The Palo Alto Medical Foundation has decided to expand their linkAges Timebank program and bring it to Sunnyvale. They have asked the LVNA for permission to present the program at the next monthly LVNA meeting.

So, come to the Lakewood Park building at 7:00pm on Wednesday, June 10th, and hear a presentation by representatives of the Palo Alto Medical Foundation describing their time banking program! I'll see you there.

(PS: We'll have a special guest on the 10th. Santa Clara County Supervisor Dave Cortese will be stopping by to say "hello" and answer questions. Don't miss this opportunity to talk directly to one of the 5 people who shape the course of the County government.) ◆

In this PBS documentary, Dr. Robert Lustig shares his theories about why the problem lies more with the quality of the food we eat than the quantity. He explains that he sees the real culprit as processed food, which is typically loaded with added sugar and stripped of its natural fiber and nutrients. Please join us for this provocative film which takes on America's eating habits.

Keep Pests Away with 6 Mosquito Repellent Plants

By Stephanie Snay

Summer means it's time to fire up the grill and invite friends over for a barbecue, but it seems like unexpected guests always crash the party. No, not your in-laws — we're talking about pesky bugs. There are ways to keep mosquitoes and other insects away besides drowning yourself in bug spray. For a more green approach, try installing some of these insect-repelling plants around your yard.

1. Marigolds
Not only do they make your landscape more attractive, but marigolds also have a distinct smell that repels mosquitoes. Plant from seed or get a starter plant from a nursery or floral department. Place potted marigolds near mosquito entry-points, such as doors and windows, or on a deck or balcony where you spend a lot of time outdoors. They also deter insects that prey on tomato plants — an added bonus for gardeners.

2. Citronella
Citronella is one of the most common ingredients in insect repellents, due to its strong smell, which masks mosquito attractants. The perennial clumping grass grows 5 to 6 feet, and can be planted in the ground or kept in large pots. Citronella plants thrive best in full sun and areas with good drainage.

3. Catnip
Warning: Your catnip might bring all the cats to the yard. The perennial herb, related to mint, is easy to grow. While it repels mosquitoes in close proximity, some people apply crushed leaves for more protection.

4. Lavender

In addition to smelling lovely, aiding in relaxation and promoting restful sleep, lavender dissuades mosquitoes and gnats from invading your outdoor dinner party when planted in the garden or in pots placed by windows, doors and entertainment areas. The dried flowers can also be placed in wardrobes to repel moths.

5. Basil
Enjoy delicious pesto dishes, and keep mosquitoes at bay, with this insect-repelling herb. Basil is one of the few herbs in which you don't have to crush the leaves to reap its benefits. Lemon basil and cinnamon basil are the best varieties to prevent unwanted pests.
