WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN UP TO?

We want to hear from YOU! As many of us have likely been spending way more time at home than we possibly could have predicted at the beginning of the year, working harder than ever in an essential job to keep things running as smoothly as possible, or even a mix of both, we want to hear what you've been up to. Lakewood Village is a diverse neighborhood and, as a result, has likely seen its residents impacted in different ways. We are all part of LVNA, so having a glimpse into the lives of our neighbors will help in planning as we inch back towards a sense of normalcy, however long that may take.

Have you been catching up on TV shows? Taking care of patients? Reading a book (or many)? Sticking to an exercising routine? Serving customers? Learning a new skill? Landscaping and/or home decorating? We want to hear it! Please email us at editor@lvnasv.org. We will not publish or share anything you say without your consent.

ASSISTANCE

Sunnyvale Community Services (SCS) is open to the Sunnyvale community to provide support and emergency assistance to those facing financial hardship, homelessness, and hunger. They have emergency food, financial aid, and referral services available. If you or someone in the community that you know is in need of assistance, please contact SCS: info@svcommunityservices.org or 408-738-4321.

If you would like to help:

- Consider donating to SCS' relief fund: https://svcommunityservices.org/donate-online/ Your contribution helps staff meet the needs of those requiring financial assistance in paying for rent, utilities, medical costs, food, and other essential items.
- Reach out to a neighbor or loved one who may be struggling. Even in difficult times, many people may still feel uncomfortable asking for assistance. Lending a hand can help ease that discomfort.

RECIPE CORNER

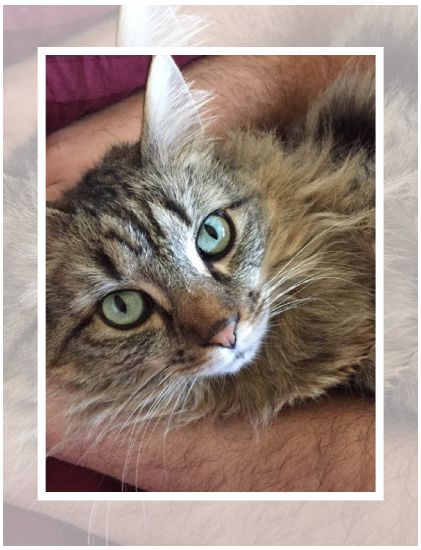

Spring Rolls with Peanut Sauce

spring roll wrappers
veggies, all julienned: carrot, cucumber, bell pepper, purple cabbage vermicelli noodles, cooked
green leaf lettuce, destemmed
medium cooked shrimp, sliced in half, length-wise

Peanut Sauce:
1/4 CUP creamy peanut
1 TBSP hoisin sauce
1 TSP soy sauce
1-2 cloves garlic, minced
5-6 TSP warm water
sriracha sauce, optional

1. Pour warm water into a large pan, like a baking tray. You want the pan to be large enough to fully submerge your spring roll wrappers.
2. Dip a spring roll wrapper into the warm water for about 5 seconds. You want the wrapper to be slightly firm - it will soften as you assemble the roll.
3. Place wrapper onto flat work surface, like a large plate or cutting board.
4. Add filling to the bottom center of the wrapper: few slices of carrot, cucumber, bell pepper, cabbage, a small amount of noodles, a thin layer of lettuce, and some shrimp on top.
5. Roll everything up tightly while folding in the sides, like a burrito.
6. Peanut sauce: Combine all ingredients listed under peanut sauce, except for water, into a bowl. Whisk in 1 TBSP water at a time until you've reached desired consistency.

PET OF THE MONTH

Hi, I'm Apple, a long haired fur baby of 5 years old who lives on the Lakewood side by the park with my adoptive parents and twin sister, Banana. I enjoy sunning myself, watching people/cars, and meowing my parents awake at 4AM because I'm bored. I'm an indoor kitty so you shouldn't see me out 'n about, but you may occasionally catch me excitedly watching you from the window!
