VILLAGER HISTORY

If you're new to the neighborhood – Welcome!!! In case you haven't seen one of these before, this is the Villager, Lakewood Village's neighborhood newsletter. A new edition is published each month and is now in the 64th year of publication! Neighborhood volunteers used to hand-deliver a copy to each of the 1,614 homes in the neighborhood, every month, until the operation went digital in 2019. We're kicking off 2021 with a one-time paper delivery for nostalgic reasons (2021 deserves a fresh start) and to spread the word to those who may not already be subscribed to the digital publication or follow the Nextdoor LVNA group.

Since this is a one-time paper delivery, we encourage you to sign up for the Villager mailing list at LVNASV.org/villager to ensure you're the first to know when a new edition is released. Just enter your name and email address, then confirm your email by clicking the link that we send to your inbox. That's it! Don't worry, it's only once a month; nobody likes junk-mail.

We're crossing our fingers that COVID-19 will be under control in the not-too-distant future so that we can resume in-person events; such as holiday parties, picnics, and dumpster days. In the meantime, we continue to hold monthly meetings, over Zoom, and have had some fantastic presenters {Officers from SDPS, district 6 city councilmember-elect, Bay-Area physician and public health expert}. Check out past editions of the Villager on LVNASV.org/villager for links to the video recordings.

LVNA MEETING RECAP

LVNA MEETING ON DEC 09

Officer Chen, from the Sunnyvale Department of Public Safety, joined us again to discuss what we can do as a community to be more active in the prevention of crime in our neighborhood, as well as to follow up on topics from our previous discussions. If you weren't able to attend, we encourage you to watch the recording for info on homeless camps in the Lakewood and Fairwood parks, what's required in order to pursue a crime, and much more.

PET OF THE MONTH

Our cat Impy was LVNA Pet of the Month in November 2020, so we felt it only fair that Impy's adoptive brother, Sparks (also called Sparkle) get his due. Sparks was a homebody, spending 99% of his time inside. He was gentle, sweet, and cooperative.

With his distinctive facial features, including the Hershey's kiss pattern on his nose, he looked more pretty than handsome! Sparks was the perfect lap ornament and was a wonderful pet for his all-too-short 13 years.

Instyle Beauty Salon is offering readers $150 off microblading, a new and popular procedure that creates the perfect eyebrow!

~~$450~~ Only $300 for Villager readers, which includes the touch-up visit that is recommended within 4-6 weeks of initial procedure.

Manual microblading is a form of a semi-permanent tattoo that involves using tiny needles (instead of a tattoo gun) that make up a small blade to help deposit pigment under your skin, one by one, for natural looking hair strokes. The procedure takes about 1-2 hours and lasts 1.5-2 years, before needing to be redone to look fresh. Topical numbing cream is used to maximize comfort. Microblading is perfect for anyone with any hair color and is tailored to each individual client.

RECIPE CORNER

Peppermint Mint Chip Cookies

¾ CUP butter, unsalted
½ CUP light brown sugar
⅛ CUP white sugar
1 large egg, room temp
2 TSP vanilla extract
1 TSP peppermint extract
2 CUPS all-purpose flour
2 TSP cornstarch
1 TSP baking soda
¼ TSP salt
1 CUP Andes mints, chopped

1. Use a hand-held mixer or stand mixer to cream together butter and sugar, until light and fluffy. Add egg, vanilla extract, and peppermint extract. Mix well and scrape bowl as needed.
2. In a separate bowl, combine flour, cornstarch, baking soda, and salt.
3. Pour dry ingredients into butter/egg mixture and mix on low until fully combined. Add Andes mints and combine into cookie dough.
4. Cover dough with plastic wrap and chill for at least 1 hour, or overnight.
5. Before rolling out cookie dough, remove from fridge and let it sit on the counter for 10 minutes. Preheat oven to 350 °F. Use large ice cream scoop to make similar-sized dough blobs before rolling between your hands to form a ball.
6. Add dough balls onto parchment-lined baking sheet, leaving some room between each cookie.
7. Bake in 350 °F oven for about 12 minutes. Let them cool and enjoy!
