Parking

As many of you may know parking in our neighborhood can sometimes be a challenge. So many of us have multiple cars and very small driveways. However, if all of us attempt to be considerate of our neighbors and park extra vehicles either in front of our own home or on the side street (I know that may mean having to walk a little further than you would like) it would help keep the harmony with your neighbors.

As we enter into the summers months please ask that your guests park in areas that will not effect your neighbors. If we all do our part we can find a place to park and have neighbors that know we respect them our community. ■

Writing Contest ENDS ON JUNE 13th

- Editor

This contest was announced last month and is still open to Lakewood Village residents from Kindergarten to the 12th grade.

The topic to write about for the contest is:

"If I was in charge of Lakewood Village..."

Read the rules below and then submit your essay telling us what you would do if you were in charge of your neighborhood. Use your imagination. Here are some ideas to help you start, or come up with your own idea!

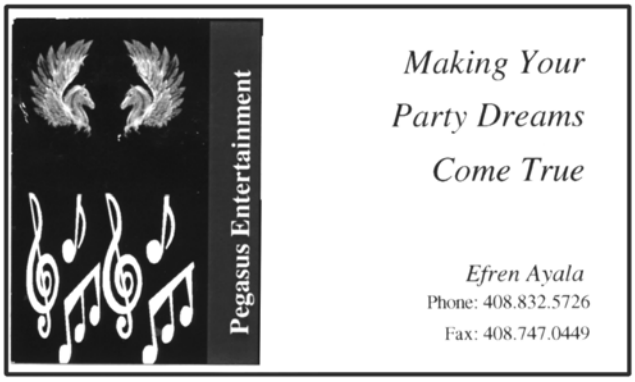

- What would you change or improve about the neighborhood?
- What would you keep just the way it is?
- How would you run the parks, or the schools, or the streets or, or the shopping center?
- What do you think is a big problem, and how would you solve it?
- What would you ask your neighbors to do?
- What would you ask the City to do?
- What makes Lakewood Village a great place to live in?

Rules

The contest is currently underway and ends on June 13th, 2003. Four age groups will be judged, and each age group has its own a different essay length and set of prizes.

This Month in Lakewood History…

- Brian Smithson

48 years ago: In 1955, Branden Construction Company is issued building permits for 105 homes in the Lakewood Village tract. One month later, Branden applied for another 155 permits. I think these were the first permits for Lakewood Village homes.

44 years ago: In 1959, after the original Lakewood Village units had been completed, construction of an additional 95 homes on the "Rivas Ranch" area on Lakehaven was proposed.

40 years ago: The Holiday Inn on Wildwood opened for business in 1963. It remained a Holiday Inn until the 1990's, when it became a Ramada Inn.

Newsletter Walkers Needed on Lakewood Side

- Wendy Stanley

We will be losing one of our walkers next month and need a replacement as soon as possible. The route is on Lakewood Dr from Lawrence to Meadowlake.

We could use walkers for Twinlake between Lakewood and Silverlake, and for Lakebird from Greenlake and 796 Lakebird.

Please contact Wendy Stanley at 745-1331 if you are interested in any of these routes. ■

Letters to the LVNA

May 12, 2003

Well another Mothers Day has come and gone. Once again we were denied the use of our neighborhood park by 1000 out-of-towners. The hundreds of parked cars congested our neighborhood streets. Our peace and quiet was shattered by multiple amplified sound systems. Inconsiderate drivers blocked all bike lanes, crosswalks, sidewalks, the Hetch Hetchy trail, and fire hydrants. Public Safety was afraid a riot would break out if they tried to enforce the parking ordinances. We have new side-show signatures (burned rubber) on our streets. The City spent twenty to thirty hours of Public Safety time at $113 per hour to keep it from getting completely out of control. I doubt that the fees paid by the Cadillac Club will cover the damage from vehicles to the park itself.

An event like this would never be tolerated at Ponderosa Park, or Serra Park or Las Palmas Park. It is time for us to tell City Hall we won't tolerate it in our neighborhood either.

Our parks department rents out space for 325 people at Lakewood Park, much more than any other neighborhood park. This needs to change. The Cadillac Club paid for 325 (or less) people and just like last year, more than a thousand showed up (police estimate) Next year the City must say NO.

The Cadillac Club party, like other large events, should be held at a regional park like Baylands, not at a neighborhood park like Lakewood.

Let your Sunnyvale officials know how you feel.

It is a very pleasant day. Balmy and warm. Perfect California weather. Time to clean off the patio, mow the lawn, open every window in the house and stretch out with the dog for a yummy summer afternoon nap. This is usually when one of the kids on the block decides to crank up the "Gangsta Rap", blaring out of the trunk at illegal levels, shaking the foundation of my house, sending my dogs into a frenzy and setting off a few auto alarms with the vibration of the bass. Or they burn out, squealing tires and leaving long black evidence on the street in front of there houses. Now I ask you ... WHERE IS THE SUNNYVALE POLICE DEPARTMENT? Why don't they cruise our streets? The violations with noise and speeding alone could generate some stiff revenue for the city. Lakewood has two elementary schools and two parks, it seems to me that our men in blue could spend a bit more time cruising our streets (I am not on a tucked away street).

I have seen a few articles lately about lack of manpower at the Sunnyvale Police Department. How much time does it take to just cruise the neighborhood on your way to the Mercado Starbucks (yeah, I see you there). I have been a Sunnyvale resident for 15 years, 14 in Lakewood, and I have never before experienced the level of neighborhood apathy I am seeing today. I think if we have a good crime rate in Sunnyvale it is due more to the lack of CITING violators as apposed to the lack of violators. I would like to see the noise pollution reduced in Lakewood. I would like to see the illegal stereos cited. I would like to see the speeders cited. I own my home in Lakewood and I am beginning to wish I did not. Why don't the $400 to $500,000 homes deserve protection? When is Lakewood going to demand the same police surveillance and the other "Upscale" neighborhoods?

Community Emergency Preparedness Workshop

- Peter Bassett, Community Outreach

Are you and your family "Sunnyvale Prepared?" Did you know that in the event of a major disaster, we might be without emergency services for 72 hours?

Sunnyvale neighborhood associations are hosting a Community Emergency Preparedness Workshop on Monday, June 23rd 2003, 6:30 p.m. at the Columbia Middle School Multipurpose Room (739 Morse Ave.).

The workshop will focus on:

- Developing a neighborhood-based emergency preparedness effort, and
- Learning about City and community resources in the event of an emergency.

The workshop will include representatives from Sunnyvale's Public Safety Department, the Red Cross, Sunnyvale School District, and the Santa Clara County Office of Disaster Services.

For more information, contact Peter at (408) 730-7739 or pbassett@ci.sunnyvale.ca.us. ■

Sunnyvale Multi-Modal Transit Station Opens

SUNNYVALE, Calif. – A new multi-modal transit station will be officially opened today (Thursday, May 22) in Sunnyvale. The station will serve Caltrain, Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority (VTA) buses and area shuttles.

The Sunnyvale Multi-modal Transit Station incorporates a five-story, 400-car parking structure, a Caltrain ticket office, surface parking and a shuttle plaza. The station is located at 295 West Evelyn Ave., between Murphy and Mathilda, in Sunnyvale.

"Opening this new facility is an important step in Sunnyvale's Downtown development, said Mayor Julia Miller. "The station provides a gateway to Sunnyvale's shopping and entertainment center as well as providing important commuter access to Santa Clara County and the peninsula."

VTA Board chairperson Jane Kennedy echoed the importance of the new center. "Multi-modal transit centers are an important part of a balanced transportation network. They are the linking points that enable travelers to move between local and regional transit providers. The Sunnyvale Station will play a key role in the region's transportation network."

County Supervisor Pete McHugh stressed the importance of building a usable transportation network. "Through the cooperation of the City of Sunnyvale, The County of Santa Clara, Caltrain, VTA and the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, we were able to build this 1996 Measure B project. It is important that transit users have access to the transportation choices that best suit their needs, and stations like this help fill that need."

John McLemore, Caltrain Board Chair and MTC Commissioner, added that there are some very important benefits to projects such as this. "Urban gridlock has slowed our freeways and contributed to air pollution. Caltrain is dedicated to providing service that will mitigate these problems. The Baby Bullet, now under construction, will become a vital rail service that will attract new riders.

In addition to providing an accessible new multi-modal transit station, the Sunnyvale facility will also provide a contribution to cleaner air. Electric car charging stations have been incorporated into the design of the garage. To honor this element of the design, electric cars will be used to break the ribbon at today's ceremonies.

The Sunnyvale Multi-modal Transit Station is a Santa Clara County 1996 Measure B project and was jointly funded by the City of Sunnyvale, County of Santa Clara, VTA, Caltrain and the Metropolitan Transportation Commission. The project was begun in September 2001 and cost $11,400,000, $8.9 million of which was funded by 1996 Measure B. ■
